Chianti Tour: Wine & Olive Oil Tasting

Tasting wine and olive oil in the Chianti Classico area in the heart of Tuscany.

Tour the area that produces one of the most famous wines in the world, and stay in one of its oldest buildings.

A guided tour of the wine cellars will show and explain all the phases of wine-making. A guided tour of the "Orciaia", the olive oil cellar, will show you how the oil is produced.

Taste some wines and oil with Tuscan salami, ham and bruschetta (toasted bread).

You will receive a brochure with detailed information about the products.

Montecatini Tour

Located in the heart of Tuscany, near Florence, Pisa and Siena, Montecatini Terme is the most prestigious spa town in Italy, famous for its thermal baths and the healing properties of its waters. In Montecatini, the stress of daily life will become a distant memory.

Visit the oldest thermal building, the "Tettuccio", which is such a concentration of beauty that it is called the "Temple of European spas". The majesty of the building and richness of the interior decoration make it the finest expression of spa architecture.

Enjoy a walk through the park or have a drink in the historical bar, Europe's oldest example of a Liberty bar that's still intact. Inside, you can do some shopping, have a beauty treatment (not included in the price) or enjoy the music while you relax and drink the waters.
